Alison McKenna,
gloss paint and pencil on card, 2014, 1/1

We are delighted to present our collaborative Private View invitation: by inviting a fair artist to transform the traditional invitation card, we have created a unique artwork.

The tactility of Alison McKenna's bold brushstrokes, thick application of paint and etched lines creates an immediacy that echoes the fair's positioning as a platform that brings you directly to art.
